Demarest announces new partner for the Energy practice área

Demarest Advogados has announced Rosi Costa Barros as a new partner. She has vast professional experience, international recognition and solid expertise in the energy area

Demarest announced Rosi Costa Barros (pictured) as its new partner of the Energy practice area. Rosi has been working for more than 20 years in the Electric Power sector, in all its segments.

She holds a degree in Law from Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro, a LL.M. in Corporate Law from IBMEC Business School and an MBA in Business Management from Fundação Getúlio Vargas.

Before joining Demarest, Rosi was a partner at Neiva, Barros & Figueiró Advogados and a founding partner at Soares, Bumachar, Chagas e Barros Advogados. Rosi is also an Institutional Director and founding member of the Brazilian Institute for Studies in Energy Law (IBDE) and, since 2011, has been nominated by Chambers Latin America and Chambers Global as a leading professional in the area of "Energy & Natural Resources: Power".

"The arrival of Rosi Barros, with her expertise and recognition in one of the most complex sectors of the legal market, is essential for us to meet the diverse needs of our clients," said Paulo Coelho da Rocha, Managing Partner of the firm. "I join an exceptional multidisciplinary team so that, together, we can achieve the best results for our clients," says Rosi Costa Barros.
