Demarest and BMA advises on the acquisition of THB by Lockton

Demarest Advogados advised Lockton in the acquisition of the THB Group, which was advised by BMA Advogados.

THB Group is a multinational brokerage firm that was part of the Amwins group, specializing in the placement and management of insurance and reinsurance, as well as benefits consulting.

Lockton Brasil is a subsidiary of Lockton, the world's largest privately held insurance broker and consultancy. THB's management team will continue to be part of the combined business.

The transaction value was BRL 185 million. The new company is born with annual insurance premium revenues of R$3 billion with the combined operations.
