Two law firms act on Care Plus' acquisition of INPAO

Machado Meyer advised Care Plus, controlled by the British company Bupa on the acquisition of 100% of the equity participation of INPAO – a company which operates dental care plans throughout Brazil, which was advised by Demarest.

With the acquisition, Care Plus' portfolio of dental plans jumps from 85,000 to 270,000 users, considering the acquisition of Inpao's 185,000 users.

Bupa, the parent company of Care Plus, is present in 190 countries and had revenues of 14 billion pounds in 2022, making it one of the largest healthcare groups in the world.
